New York Executive Harks Back to 1896 for His Campaign Thunder.

OMITS MARK HANNA'S PART

DOES NOT DEFEND THE REPUB LICAN PLATFORM.

Watertown, S. D., Oct. 6.-Swinging northwest, Governor Charles E. Hughes of New York in a speech here this oughly westernized. "An eastern man is lucky when he gets into the west," said Governor Hughes. "You westerners may have some prejudice against the east; personally I like the western air; it agrees with me. It has restored my voice. There are many of us. on the Atlantic coast who look longingly toward the great northwest. It is here we look for moral courage, vigor and intensity of purpose. I myself feel like a westerner born in the east. I have left my own state to come out here because of my interest in the present campaign. This business of electing a president is not a mere matter of financial choice. I perceive that many of you are agriculturists. Your interests and the interests of the merchant and manufacturer are bound up in this campaign. You cannot divide the people off into sections and say you will do this for agriculture, this for labor and that for the banker. We have all got to get up together, or we shall all go down together. What we want is a wider opportunity for honest en-terprise and relentless prosecution of dishonest enterprises.

It Cost $6,500,000.

"Twelve years ago we had a little controversy. The question was whether we should enact laws that would dishonor us. Mr. Bryan told us then that he was es sential to the safety of the country. We found out later that the safety of the country demanded his repudiation. When I think of it, I am reminded of a bishop who was descending in a bucket down a mine with a workman. When they had gone a long ways down the workman asked jokingly: 'Bishop, how far is it to iness confidence and close up factories. We cannot afford to commit ourselves to vagaries and visionary schemes. That is not the line of progress. It is the line of "There is no use in saying that Mr. Bryan will not be allowed to carry out his projects if elected. So far the country has said 'No' to most of the things he has candidate seems to have a remedy for gaging in a crusade against tuberculos shows you, well, he has another which might appeal to you. But all of his remedies are untried.

Has Solomon Skinned.

"On the other hand, we have in the Reiblican party as our candidate a man who has distinguished himself in every ine of effort, broad-minded and worthy such his record shows, of confidence. There is now no exigency which requires a change from the Republican to the Democratic party. Everything which goes to conserve business, to incite a return to prosperity, everything that points to an honest enforcement of law, makes it important that we should continue the Republican party in power. We have acemplished important reforms by legislation. It would be most unfortunate for the country if at this critical time we should give way to visionary proposals." Governor Hughes' schedule today included stops at Sioux Falls, S. D., Sloux City, Ia., and at Omaha tonight.
Governor Crawford of South Dakota, United States Senator Gamble and United States Marshal Seth Bullock of Deadwood, who recently accompanied Kermit Roosevelt on a hunting trip, joined the Hughes party here. Hughes party here.

Something Practical Presented to the International Tuberculosis Congress.

al tuberculosis congress the exhibit of the International Typographical union from the Printers' home at Colorado Springs. Colo., has attracted much attention and received great praise from visiting delegates and the medical fraternity in gen-

Dr. Livingston Farrand of New York, executive secretary of the National Asso-ciation for the Prevention of Tuberculosis "Now he desires to exterminate trusts. How does he go about it? Does he first give a definition of the evils and then an outline of proposed legislation that will hit at the wrongs? No. That is not his way. That is not the way. He proposes a cure-all that will catch the popular fancy for a moment. The Democratic candidate seems to have a remedy for gaging in a crusade against tuberculosis.

Result of Experience.

The International Typographical union has been engaged in the work of caring for its invalids, sick and aged members for many years. For the last ten years, especial attention has been given to the treatment of patients afflicted with tuberculosis. The tent treatment has proved the most valuable. Plenty of fresh air. sunshine, fresh eggs and milk has been the method and during the past year over 50 per cent of those going to the sanitarium in the first stage of tuberculosis have been cured and discharged, able to do their duties in the business world

Experience of the Printers.

At the Labor day meeting today, Superintendent Deacon of the sanitarium gave a concise history of the hospital and the results, during a decade's fight against the great white plague. President Frank A. Kidd of Columbia Typographical union No. 101 delivered an address along lines calculated to awaken the laboring people to the pecessity of co-operation with their employers in the se-curing of sanitary conditions in the per-formance of their labor and urged upon them the observance of hygienic methods
